

Greengates Primary Academy Amazing World Book Day!

In the days leading up to World Book Day, we talked about how in fact every day is a book-day when we can engage with books and stories from around the world. We discussed the famous quote from Dr Seuss. 'The More That You Read, The More Things You Will Know. The More That You Learn, The More Places You'll Go.'. To celebrate the day, children and staff dressed up. They had the choice between costumes that represented a book, book character or comfortable clothes in which they most enjoy reading in. The variety was incredible, and each costume told a story!

We started off with an epic assembly from an author and our AAB Chair Jenny Collins. With her amazing expression and enthusiasm, the children were left with mouths wide open! The day continued with lots of reading-related-activities. Miss Kolbaba's Year 1 class enjoyed their costume Phonics. Our canteen staff showed our pupils how much they also enjoyed books and provided Greengate's pupils with a special book lunch! The pupils enjoyed watching the masked reader whereby staff and children had engaged in the masked reader whereby they read in disguise and sent their videos in to school.

The day ended with another special assembly where children were able to discuss their favourite books. Overall, it was a magical day! Thank you to all the Greengate's staff, children and parents for making the day so successful.

Our staff enjoyed dressing up.

Mrs Samantha Dovey (Year 3 teacher), Mrs Kiara Rough (Nursery teacher) and Mrs Helen Whelan (Year 5 teacher)

Our wonderful canteen staff prepared a 'Thing or two' for our delicious World Book Day lunch

We had an inspiring assembly hosted by author Jenny Collins.

The Masked Reader

Here are a few examples that we guessed from...

